

LDP I: CUSTOMER SERVICE IN THE PUBLIC SECTOR

Do you pretend to pay attention when your mind is actually drifting away? When a person speaks too fast or uses words you don't understand, do you let it go and listen only to what you understand?

This class is designed for those who are looking to increase their knowledge of what good customer service means. More than just a powerful buzzword, customer service is essential to the business at the City of Tempe.

This class will give you the tools to provide great customer service: all the time, every time.
